STUDENT RIGHTS

Student Right-To-Know

Lone Star College System does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, religion, disability, age, veteran status, nationality, sexual orientation, or ethnicity in provisions of educational opportunities or employment opportunities and benefits.

LSCS colleges make statistics available regarding persistence, completion and graduation rates of full-time undergraduate certificate or degree-seeking students. The colleges also report beginning salaries earned by recent graduates.

LSCS colleges require specific standards of conduct relating to alcohol and substance abuse, and provide education and consultation to students seeking assistance with alcohol and drug issues.

LSCS colleges have in place a process for students to appeal decisions or file formal grievances related to academic progress and student life on campus.

LSCS colleges report campus crime statistics.

Please contact the student services office at any college or access the system's home page at www.lonestar.edu for complete policies and information.

The provisions and information set forth in this catalog are intended to be informational and not contractual in nature. Lone Star College System reserves and retains the right to amend, alter, change, delete or modify any of the provisions of this catalog at any time or in any manner that the administration or Board of Trustees of the Lone Star College System deems to be in the best interest of the college.

The policies and procedures stated herein are for the student's benefit and assistance. The administration of the system reserves the right to act as final interpreter of this catalog. Additionally, the system reserves the right to change, without prior notice, tuition, fees, requirements and regulations, as obligated by district or legislative action.

The system cannot guarantee that courses listed in this catalog will be offered in any given term or year at any college. Registration for a particular section, course or program will be permitted only until available classroom space or facilities have been filled. LSCS reserves the right to cancel any course or section for which enrollment is insufficient.

A student who wishes to review documents regarding the accreditation of Lone Star College System may do so by making an appointment with the chief student-affairs officer.

Equal Opportunity Statement

Lone Star College System is committed to the principle of equal opportunity in education and employment. The system does not discriminate against individuals on the basis of race, color, gender, religion, disability, age, veteran status, nationality, sexual orientation, or ethnicity in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, employment policies, scholarship and loan programs, and other system or college administered programs and activities.

Inquiries concerning LSCS's policies, compliance with applicable laws, statutes, and regulations (such as Title VI, Title IX, and Section 504), and complaints may be directed to the associate vice chancellor for human resources, 832.813.6646. The associate vice chancellor for human resources is designated as the system's Equal Opportunity Officer and Title IX coordinator. Inquiries about the laws and about compliance may also be directed to the Assistant Secretary for civil rights, U.S. Department of Education.

ADA Statement

LSCS is dedicated to providing the least restrictive learning environment for all students. The college system promotes equity in academic access through the implementation of reasonable accommodations as required by The Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title V, Section 504 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) which will enable students with disabilities to participate in and benefit from all post-secondary educational programs and activities.
