

EMSP 1338: Review for Exam #2

Definitions and Concepts:

(60 multiple choice questions) abandonment	leadership additional responsibilities of a paramedic	leading cause of deaths afterload	level of trauma facilities AMA	liability

anaerobic/aerobic metabolism	libel anaphylaxis	mandatory reporting scenarios assault	misceasance
battery	MODS
breach of duty	negligence cardiac cycle	neurogenic shock cardiac output	patient advocacy chronotropic	PCR
code of ethics	peripheral vascular resistance community involvement	preload compensated/decompensated shock	prevention (primary, secondary, etc.) competent adult	primary responsibilities of the paramedic conductility	professional attributes of a paramedic continuing education/training	proximate cause contractility	reckless endangerment contributory negligence	referrals of patients crime scenes	refusal of care dereliction of duty	responsibilities during the response DNR	responsibilities during the return to service phase dromotropic	responsibilities during the scene size-up duty to act	scope of practice ejection fraction	septic shock empathy	slander
end organ perfusion	spinal shock epidemiology	stages of shock ethical behavior	standard of care ethical versus moral versus legal	Starling's law good samaritan laws	stroke volume hypersensitivity	sympathy hypovolemic	teamwork injury prevention programs	time-management skills inotropic	transport decisions integrity	types of consent irreversible shock	types of lawsuits lactic acid	types of shock largest number of preventable injuries	vitals of shock

EMSP 1338: Review for Exam #2Possible short answer or essay subjects:

(2-4 short answer/essay questions)

Additional responsibilities of the paramedic

Advance directives

Commonly mandated reports

Components of a civil lawsuit

Elements of negligence

EMS provider (your) commitments of injury prevention Primary responsibilities of the paramedic

Professional attributes of a paramedic