

EMSP 2330 EXAM 2 REVIEW FALL 2004

Statistics regarding neonatal prehospital care.

Ante partum, intra partum and post partum risk factors

Primary and secondary apnea

Understand the physiology relating to the changes in fetal pulmonary and circulatory systems that occur at birth.

Complications arising from respiratory insufficiency in the neonate

APGAR score

Parameters indicating the need for resuscitation beyond routine care

The inverted pyramid for neonatal resuscitation, CPR rates and drug dosages

Know your medications and their dosages!

Care of the newborn with congenital abnormalities and those born to mothers with pre-existing medical conditions

Seizures

D&V – when is it a problem and how is it treated

Know about:

- DHS
- TRIPP
- CPEM
- EMSC

Developmental stages of pediatrics

Pedi shock – types, pre-disposing factors and treatment

Pedi equipment

Difference between respiratory distress, failure and arrest

Cardiac dysrhythmias and their treatment

IV access sites

FBAO treatment

Abuse

Children with special needs

